URGES ECONOMY IN MESOPOTAMIAN RULE

Churchill Asks Aircraft Instead of Military Force.
LONDON, March 22.—Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary of State for War, in discussing the army estimates in the House of Commons today, said of affairs in the Middle East that although the situation was an anxious one it was not proving in practice as formidable as in prospect. It still was necessary to hold strong forces there, but he was hopeful of effecting great economies in the course of the year by guarding Mesopotamia primarily through the agency of the air rather than by military forces.

15,000 AT BURIAL OF LORD MAYOR OF CORK

Dublin and Other Cities Mourn for Murdered Official.

CORK, March 22.—Fifteen thousand persons marched today in the procession escorting the body of the late Thomas Mac Curtain, Lord Mayor of Cork, from the cathedral, where funeral services were held, to the cemetery of St. Finbar, where the burial took place. Some 8,000 Republican Volunteers, many of them in uniform, were in the ranks of the marchers who paid tribute to the memory of the murdered head of the city government, who was shot to death early Saturday morning by an unidentified assassin.

WILL BE NO DEFENCE

Sir Edward Carson Explains Differences and Final Departure of the Duke.

LONDON, March 22.—The application of the Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Consuelo Vanderbilt, for a decree for the restitution of conjugal rights was granted by the court today. The petition of the Duchess, filed last week, is the usual preliminary to divorce in this country. The court orders the decree to be obeyed within fourteen days after its service upon the Duke.

By the Associated Press.
DUBLIN, March 22.—There was a riot here to-night, in which two men were shot dead and four were seriously wounded. The riot was precipitated by the disorderly conduct of soldiers, about 200 of whom paraded the streets about 9 o'clock, singing, jostling passersby, hammering doors and smashing windows.

COMMONS EXCITED BY O'CONNOR INQUIRY

Soldiers' Action in Cork Murder Case Questioned.

LONDON, March 22.—A running debate on the murder of Lord Mayor Mac Curtain of Cork started in the House of Commons today when T. P. O'Connor, the Irish Nationalist leader, asked James Ian MacPherson, Chief Secretary for Ireland, if the action of the soldiers in immediately searching Mr. Mac Curtain's home after the murder did not give rise to a suspicion that their purpose was to destroy evidence.

The Work of a Master Hand

Ru-stella Model C, $129.00 CASH, is a Queen Anne period model finished in either mahogany, golden or fumed oak.

Beauty of cabinet work, both in design and finish, is just another reason for the superiority of the Ru-stella—it bespeaks utility as well as beauty.

While other machines are finished in either a decided red or brown mahogany, the finish on the Ru-stella is a special mahogany veneer—made so that it harmonizes perfectly with your furnishings, whether they be modest or elaborate.

SOLD FOR CASH ONLY

The model illustrated at $129.00 CASH, compares favorably with machines selling elsewhere, on "convenient terms," at $175.00 and more. There are four other models of Ru-stella—$42.50, $89.50, $159.00 and $184.00 CASH—representing a saving of from $30.00 to $100.00 on machines sold elsewhere on so called "convenient terms."

Could the Treaty Be Enforced?

A luncheon discussion based on J. M. KEYNES' Book "The Economic Consequences of the Peace" will be held under the auspices of the League of Free Nations Association at the

HOTEL COMMODORE

Saturday, March 27th, at 12:45 Sharp

Speakers: PAUL D. CRAVATH: Legal Adviser, 1918, to U. S. Treasury Finance Commission in Europe. ALVIN JOHNSON: Editor, The New Republic; Economist and former professor of political science. DAVID HUNTER MILLER: Legal Adviser, U. S. Commission to Negotiate Peace. ALLYN A. YOUNG: of Carmel, Economic Adviser, U. S. Commission to Negotiate Peace.

Mr. Cravath has called Mr. Keynes' book "perhaps the most important since the Armistice." Mr. Miller charges that it has "completely misinterpreted the terms of the treaty." Mr. Young finds "certain elements of strain, of exaggeration... But for all that [it] is like nothing so much as a fresh breeze coming from a plain where poisonous gases are not hanging."

Covers 42 each. Reservations should be accompanied by check. Tables seat ten. Checks payable to Robert H. Gardiner, Treas., 130 W. 42nd St.

It is but fitting that the superb Chalmers engine and chassis should be appropriately housed and give to the owner maximum of elegance and comfort.

This has been accomplished in a series of closed bodies noticeable for the restraint and good taste shown both in design and decoration.
